Welcome, 2016 MA Students!

Sixty-six students from 16 nations are participating in the Master of Missiology session, held May 9–July 22 on the Lomé campus. Among them are 5 third-year students from the MA extension in Kinshasa, DRC, who have come for their final courses. Sixteen professors are teaching the 2-week block courses and hail from 7 nations in Africa, North America, and Europe. Please pray for these students and professors, and for the 25+ currently writing their theses. Photos: <http://bit.ly/1Wt39XY>. Use this link to see photos added throughout the session.

Kitchen, Dining Hall Renovation

The student lounge and veranda in front of the current cafeteria are being converted into a new, updated kitchen and dining hall. Follow our progress: <http://bit.ly/1VYmdxe>.

Spiritual Emphasis, April 12-14

Rev. Emile Adoté, general superintendent of the Assemblies of God of Benin, exhorts students to make their own spiritual growth a priority to better please God, serve their churches, and be exemplary witnesses of Christ to a lost world.

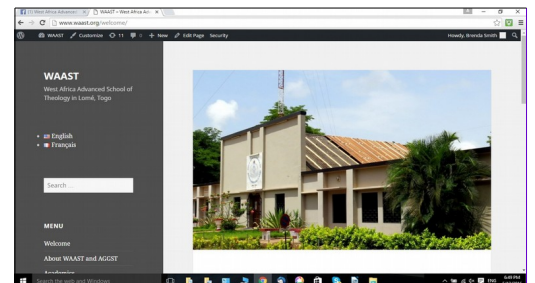

Extension Center News

GABON: This month the 16 students in the new extension, in Libreville, are meeting for their second of 3 sessions in 2016.

MADAGASCAR: This center will hold classes in June with 12 students. Four hope to come to the Lomé campus in August to finish the program. Pray that the Lord would provide the funds they need.
