*The Lord is my light and my salvation—whom shall I fear?
The Lord is the stronghold of my life—of whom shall I be afraid? (Ps 27:1)*

Today's Prayer Requests: From Students, Alumni, and Missionaries

GUINEA-CONAKRY: Let's continue to pray for this Muslim-majority nation as it faces political conflict, which has included violent, even deadly demonstrations. An alumnus from another West African country who serves here writes: "My city of mission is the crossroads of the country and the stronghold of the opposition." He asks us to pray

- "that peace would return, and that this does not turn into a religious conflict, where often they attack the church and the Christians;
- "that the devil does not take advantage of this to sow disorder." Islam often takes deeper root in such an environment.

Pray also for his work in this city in the interior. The school he has established offers kindergarten and first grade and now has 65 children enrolled. The church is growing and townspeople are visiting, particularly for ceremonies such as marriages. Pray that what they hear at these events, and the testimony of the workers and local believers, would have a great impact on this community, for God's glory.

LIBERIA: The wife of an alumnus, with her husband's blessing and encouragement, planted a church nearly three years ago in a town where Islam, animism, and secret societies prevail. She reports that today about 50 adults and children attend. Believers face persecution but are standing firm. She travels every weekend to minister and is preparing others for ministry as well. Pray that the Lord would use her and this work to touch and deliver many more from the false religions that bind them.

TOGO: An alumnus who pastors in a Muslim-dominated town shares these requests:

- "Pray that Muslim souls would be touched and receptive to the gospel, and may the Lord add new souls to His church, that the void would be filled"
- Pray that the Holy Spirit would use the church members in demonstrations of power that will speak to seekers.
- Pray that evangelism teams would be mobilized for outreach in a certain precinct, and that the Spirit would go before them to prepare hearts.
- Pray for the construction of a dispensary to serve the community and to share the gospel
- "May the God who owns all things open the financial doors to His church for the finishing of the church building. Its current state leaves something to be desired, and this is a handicap to conversion."
