And this gospel of the kingdom will be preached … to all nations, and then the end will come (Mt 24:14).

Today's Prayer Requests: From Workers

BENIN: A training program held this past week brought together workers seeking to plant churches in yet-unreached communities in Benin. These workers are serving some 22 people groups. Benin counts 62 people groups, most of which follow traditional religions. Sixteen groups are predominately Muslim, with many mixing traditional beliefs in animism with their Islamic beliefs. Pray that the Holy Spirit would lead each worker as they reach people and establish them in faith in Jesus and in the body of Christ.

GHANA: A worker asks us to pray for a mother, A., as she grieves the death of her young child. A. is from a Muslim background and was involved in prostitution, but has accepted Jesus and is being discipled and is active in the church, the worker explains. She is asking the difficult questions: "Why did God do this to me? Is it wrong to convert from Islam to Christianity? Was leaving the street (prostitution) a mistake? Is this how God repays me—by taking away my precious child at such a tender age?"

- Pray that A. would sense the Lord holding her close and find in Him the answers and peace she needs.
- Pray for wisdom for this worker and this church as they walk with A. through this dark time.
- Pray that God would bless this worker as she reaches other ladies who are trying to escape their life of prostitution, and as she ministers to their children as well.

SUDAN/EGYPT: A few months ago we pray for Sudanese refugees, some 1.5 million, who have resettled in Egypt, mainly in Cairo. We thank God for two new workers who are ministering specifically to these refugees. A leader asks us to pray for their work:

- "Ask the Lord to open doors to share the hope of Jesus with those displaced and traumatized by the ongoing civil war.
- "Pray for opportunities to train and equip Sudanese believers who can help establish and strengthen the Church when they eventually return to Sudan."
- Pray that these workers might build good relationships and collaboration with Sudanese believers and pastors who are among the refugees, and that their collective efforts would bring many to Jesus.

TOGO: Pray for two training programs held this week and next in two sensitive cities in Togo. The leader explains: "The objective is to equip Gospel workers to effectively reach unreached peoples and to disciple those who respond to Christ's call, helping them become mature, firmly grounded, and committed followers of Christ." Some 100 workers are attending the first meeting. Please pray for the God's protection over the training team and participants as they travel, and for His protection and wisdom as they convene in sensitive areas. "Pray that pastors and Gospel workers will be deeply strengthened, adequately equipped, and empowered to effectively and sustainably share the Gospel among unreached peoples."
